Exemplary Service Award Nomination

NIRMA Members are encouraged to identify those individuals who they feel have significantly contributed to projects promoting information management within NIRMA and/or in the nuclear industry. Awards will be presented at the 2018 NIRMA Conference.

The following is a brief description of each category:

RECOGNITION AWARD:
An award is presented to a NIRMA member in recognition of a significant contribution to the organization during the year. The contribution must have a positive impact or positively promotes NIRMA.

LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD
This is NIRMA’s most prestigious award given to an individual who has demonstrated outstanding and sustained support of NIRMA and participation in NIRMA activities. A lifetime member generally will have held leadership positions in the organization and will have significantly impacted NIRMA’s development and progress in a positive and highly visible way. A lifetime member receives a lifetime membership plaque, complimentary membership dues and conference fees for his/her lifetime, in addition to all other privileges granted to a NIRMA member.

HANS EBNER MEMORIAL AWARD
This award is named in memory of Hans Ebner, a dynamic, enthusiastic and dedicated leader of NIRMA whose legacy has inspired many industry-leading initiatives. His dedication and enthusiasm in promoting NIRMA greatly contributed to the organization’s continued success.

An award is given to the individual who enhances the stature and visibility of NIRMA by demonstrating the dedication, spirit and enthusiasm that was exuded by Hans Ebner. The individual must have completed a project within one year that significantly promotes or advances NIRMA within the industry. The recipient will receive a plaque plus $1,000 to be used to promote the records management profession and NIRMA. The winner must also commit to writing an article for the NIRMA newsletter on how the funds were used.
