The Nuclear Information and Records Management Association (NIRMA) is the nuclear industry's leader in Information and Records Management. Since 1977, NIRMA has been uniquely qualified to provide guidance to commercial and Department of Energy facilities in the areas of quality records programs, regulatory compliance activities, electronic records initiatives, document management technologies, knowledge management issues and industry benchmarking.

NIRMA is also a standards development organization, ANSI/NIRMA CM 1.0, Guidelines for Configuration Management for Nuclear Facilities.

NIRMA is a Not-For-Profit Corporation governed by a Board of Directors, and has members from the U.S. as well as international communities. NIRMA provides information to its members through its website, newsletters, bi-annual Business Unit meetings and Annual Conference.

“Networking at [the Annual NIRMA Conference] is the best of any professional conference I’ve attended… I plan to continue conversations with many of the people I’ve met and cannot wait to come back.”
- Chris Boudreaux
  - Lead Network Administrator
  - STP Nuclear Operating Co.

Vision
To be the internationally recognized authority for Information and Records Management Professionals amongst regulated industries or agencies and their regulators.

Mission
To support regulated nuclear and selected industries, agencies, and their regulators in the development, implementation and administration of documents, records and information management processes to facilitate cost-effective operations and regulatory compliance.

Values
To promote professionalism, continuing education, accountability, teamwork, integrity, respect and excellence in all endeavors.

Professional Forum
NIRMA provides individuals and their organizations with real and timely opportunities to:
- Influence industry direction and regulatory policy
- Collaborate with industry peers on industry best practices
- Contribute to resolution of emerging industry issues
- Develop ANSI Standards and other technical and management guidance documents to address evolving challenges in today’s energy environment
- Develop and train Information Management staff in Records Management, Document Control, and Information Management basics.

In addition, individuals can assume leadership roles that support personal growth and development goals as well as provide direct benefit to their respective organizations.

Interfaces
NIRMA has developed advantageous interfaces with several other professional organizations – in both the Nuclear and Information Management industries. A few examples of these relationships are listed below.

Nuclear Industry
- ANSI – American National Standard Institute
- ASME – American Society of Mechanical Engineers
- IAEA – International Atomic Energy Agency
- NEI - Nuclear Energy Institute
